

MINNEAPOLIS GUITAR QUARTET

MAJA RADOVANLIJA

Serbian-born Maja Radovanlija has performed extensively as an international solo and chamber musician, touring Serbia, Bulgaria, Slovenia, Macedonia, Greece, Tunisia, Switzerland, and other European countries. She joined the Minneapolis Guitar Quartet in 2012, bringing an eclectic musical background including performances with Mu Daiko Japanese Theater and improvised concerts with guitarist/composer Alex Lubet, as well as participating in workshops led by famous jazz musician Vojin Draskoci.

Maja was awarded First Prize at the International Competition for Classical Guitar in Kyustendil, Bulgaria. She completed her bachelor's degree at the University of Belgrade as a student of Prof. Srdjan Tomic. Maja came to the United States to study at Indiana University's Jacobs School of Music where she received both her master's and doctoral degrees under Ernesto Bitetti, as well as studying early music with lutenist Nigel North. Maja won Second Prize in Indiana University's Annual Competition in the Performance of Music from Spain and Latin America. In 2011 Maja was appointed to the guitar faculty at the University of Minnesota School of Music. Visit her website: www.majaradovanlija.net
